

MRS. JULIA D. TURLEY

One of Montgomery's Most Beloved and Prominent Women Dies in the County.

Mrs. Julia Davis Turley died Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of her son, Samuel Turley, on the Camargo pike. Mrs. Turley was in her 90th year, and was one of our oldest and most beloved women.

She had spent all of her life in our midst and was next to the oldest woman in the county.

Mrs. Turley had been a member of the Christian church for nearly seventy years, and at the time of her death was a member of the Sycamore Christian church at Jeffersonville. She had always lived the life of a Christian, and was a big hearted and generous woman, always ready to lend the weak a helping hand.

She was a daughter of Garrett Davis, who served in Congress for several terms. Two sons, Samuel, of this county, Zack, of Chicago, and one daughter, Mrs. Henrietta O'Rear, of this city, survive her.

The funeral services were held at the residence of her son in this county, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. D. Clark, burial in Machpelah cemetery.

Thus another good Christian woman, a true friend and a kind and loving mother has been called to "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give thee rest."

Talk Twenty-One.

One of the things which deter many men from taking up the important topic of Life Insurance is the bewildering array of forms and alternatives in the styles of policy. Nothing rattles a man so much and so thoroughly as to drench him with perplexing schemes and figures. It's all wrong and it's all unnecessary.

Life Insurance is one of the simplest propositions there is; that is, when it is properly presented. The point is this; it isn't what you can get, it's what you ought to have!

The State Mutual, of Worcester, Mass., won't give you anything else! If you've been positively swamped with Insurance literature, until you don't know what you want, or what you ought to have, there is no friend like the friend who will disentangle you, who'll clear the skies for you, and who will expound genuine Insurance in its genuine form!

There is an old saying that "we think our ducks are swans." Hoffman knows that in the duck-pond of Life Insurance he's got a swan that's Simon-pure! He'll make you agree with him, too, if you'll give him a chance. While this chance will be his, he's a still bigger chance for you.

Pistol Users Get Busy Again.

Saturday night, near the restaurant of Harve Ragan, on the Owingsville pike, in this city, Logan Hatton shot and seriously wounded James Adamson, of the Levee, the shots taking effect, one in the left breast and the other in the leg. Drs. W. R. Thompson and C. B. Duerson dressed his wounds and pronounced him in a dangerous condition. Hatton was promptly arrested and is now in jail awaiting examining trial. He is a son of H. H. Hatton, of this city, and Adamson is a son of J. M. Adamson, of the Levee. The details of the shooting are meager, but from all that could be learned it appears to be the result of a drunken row.

Friday night John Devine, white, shot and wounded Perry Turner, colored. Turner received a slight flesh wound in the leg. Devine has been arrested and will be tried as soon as Turner can attend court. No one seems to know the cause of the trouble, and Devine claims self-defense.

Mr. John S. Herriott Dies in New Mexico.

On Saturday Mrs. Claude Holly of this city, was notified of the death of her brother-in-law, John S. Herriott, which occurred in New Mexico Thursday.

Mr. Herriott formerly lived in this city where he had many warm friends who will regret to learn of his death.

Several years ago, Mr. Herriott left here for Oklahoma City, where he was successful in business, but owing to his poor health moved to New Mexico. He was about 45 years of age and is well known and remembered by many of our citizens.

He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Lida Johnson, of this county, and three children to mourn his death. The burial took place in Oklahoma City.

BRICK STREETS.

City Council Meets and Discusses The Paying of Streets--Other Business Transacted.

A strong effort is going to be made to secure brick streets and the City Council at their regular meeting appointed the following committee to look into the cost and arrangements for building same: W. A. Samuels, G. H. Strother, C. C. Chenault, W. R. Thompson and W. S. Lloyd.

These men will organize by electing a Chairman and Secretary and will at once begin active work by employing a special engineer to make plans and specifications and will ascertain the actual cost per yard. Any vacancies in the committee will be filled by the Council. The committee appointed will have actual charge of the work of paving the streets and work will probably be begun in the late summer. It is stated that the first work will be in the business section, but it is hoped to pave the entire city.

Let everyone encourage and support these gentlemen in this work. Mt. Sterling with brick streets would, beyond a doubt be the prettiest city in the Blue Grass. Will you help make it such.

OTHER BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS.

At the meeting claims against the city amounting to $2,500 were allowed, and the reports of the officers were received, filed and accepted. The report of Mr. R. G. Kern, in which he made settlements with all of the officers was also filed and accepted, and the report showed the city to be in excellent condition financially. Several permits for new buildings were granted, among them one to Leslie McCormick for the erection of a large 9-room residence.

Death of Mrs. Cleora Wood.

Mrs. Cleora Wood died at the residence of Mrs. Fannie Reese on East Main street, Monday morning, after a lingering illness of general debility. Mrs. Wood was 76 years of age, and was a native of Maine. Her husband has been dead many years. She formerly resided in Florida and California, but in the past few years had made her home with Mrs. Reese. Mrs. Wood was an excellent woman and greatly esteemed. She was the mother of Capt. Ed. N. Wood, the well known railway conductor, who now resides in Georgia and who recently married Miss Emma Reese.

Sells Nice Farm.

W. Hoffman Wood (the man who sells the earth) has sold to J. M. Johnson, of Bath county, the farm of C. L. and J. N. Cook, in this county, and will give possession on March 1. The farm lies on the waters of Slate creek, and contains 98 1/2 acres. The price paid was $7,500, equal to cash. Mr. Johnson will move to the farm to live.

Sells Fine Horses.

Mr. Thos. J. Bigstaff has sold 5 Hackney mares and geldings, their ages ranging from 3 to 4 years. Mr. Percy E. Hoge, proprietor of Belthoape Farms, Jett, Ky., being the purchaser. The horses will be trained by the famous English trainer, George Gibson.

Through Receiving Tobacco.

Mr. Allie R. Robertson, who has been receiving his purchase of tobacco for the Louisville Warehouse Company, has finished receiving and prizing the purchase. He received about two million pounds at the warehouse here.

Five Go to the Pen--Doings of the Grand Jury.

The January term of the Montgomery Circuit Court was brought to a close here Saturday, after a term of four weeks of hard work. The grand jury returned a large batch of indictments, but did not find any clue to the parties who attempted to blow up the Robinson Warehouse. The docket was cleaned of a large number of cases.

Five men were sentenced to the penitentiary and sentence was passed by Judge Young on all the prisoners, all under the indeterminate law. The prisoners and time given are as follows: Chas. and Millard Martin and Lloyd Willoughby, from 2 to 21 years, for manslaughter; James Cartmell, for cattle stealing, from 1 to 5 years, and Reuben Durham, for housebreaking, from 1 to 5 years. The first four prisoners are white men and the latter a colored man.

DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Was the Progressive Euchre Party of Mrs. J. Will Clay.

The progressive euchre given by Mrs. J. Will Clay at her beautiful home on North Maysville street, last Thursday, was one of the most elaborate social affairs of the season.

The house was tastefully and artistically decorated by our florists, Graser & Humphreys, and the house was made into a perfect bower of flowers. The flowers used were red and white carnations and the always beautiful southern smilax. There were about 60 guests present, who were served a delightful course luncheon after the games.

This was considered one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.

Lyceum Course.

The fourth number of the Lyceum Course will be given at the Tabb Opera House on Tuesday evening, February 21, when the company known as the Boston Lyrics will appear in a wonderful varied program of music and entertainment. The proven ability of the individuals composing the Boston Lyrics is sufficient guarantee of their success in concert entertainment.

The company consists of Mr. Flavel R. Jordan, Jr., as baritone soloist; Mrs. Carolyn Jordan as accompanist, and Miss Bertha Wells as reader and entertainer.

Versatility, uniform excellence and artistic finish characterize their program throughout. The entertainment consists of songs, readings, cartoons, pastel readings and songs, monologues, humorous skits, selections and accompaniments on the marimbaphone and other musical instruments.

The beautiful silver-toned marimbaphone and bowena are new musical instruments to the Lyceum platform, being ideal instruments of entrancing sweetness, which have recently been constructed especially for the use of the Boston Lyrics Company. Both Miss Wells and Mr. Jordan have appeared before delighted audiences for several years, the trio company being organized to meet the growing demand for a program that will be delightfully varied without resorting to an unwieldy number of performers.

The program will begin promptly at 8:15 o'clock. Tickets are on sale at R. H. White's drug store.

Date of Sale Changed.

The R. F. Greene sale set for February 23, has been changed to February 21, the same day of J. N. Cook's sale.

MRS. EMMA DEAN

Drops Dead in South Bend, Ind Heart Failure the Cause--Was Buried Here Monday.

While on her way to a church sociable in South Bend, Ind., last Friday, Mrs. Emma Robinson Dean dropped to the ground and lived only a few minutes, heart trouble being the cause of her death.

Her husband, Mr. Ellis Dean, former Sheriff of this county, preceded her to the great unknown many years ago.

Mrs. Dean spent most of her life in this section, but during the past few years had made her home at St. Joe, Mo., with her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Bolton.

At the time of her death she was visiting her son, Dr. Edwin Dean, of South Bend, Ind.

She was a woman of lovely christian character and her kind and gentle manner endeared to her a wide circle of friends.

Mrs. Dean was 70 years of age, and had been a member of the Baptist church many years, and was true to her belief in her Savior, being an untiring church worker.

She is survived by two children, Mrs. Bolton, of St. Joe, Mo., and Dr. Edwin Dean, of South Bend, Ind., and five sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Nannie Judy, Mrs. Enoch Bruton, Mrs. J. W. Chenault, all of this city; Mrs. Jos. H. Powers and Mrs. Jno. W. Heflin, of Flemingsburg, and R. C. Robinson, of this city, and Jno. Robinson, of Alabama.

The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon by Rev. W. J. Bolin at the residence of Mrs. Nannie Judy on Sycamore street, burial in Machpelah.

A mother that was true and loving, a sister that was gentle and affectionate, has gone forth to meet her Redeemer and enter the beautiful city of God.

Without Mrs. Dean the world will not seem as bright to many, as it did, but all that knew her are better for her having lived and her blessed example will live through all eternity.

"All will be well." Let not our hearts be troubled. By passing clouds or shadows that may fall, we must pass bravely on with faith redoubled. The glorious end will justify it all. I will believe that voice from Heaven's portal, Clear as the utterances from a silver bell. It speaks to me a truth that is immortal-- "All will be well."

Taxpayers Last Notice.

If you have not paid your taxes and wish to avoid the humiliation of having your name published in the list of delinquents, come in and pay at once. The law compels me to publish the list. I am giving you this notice that you may blame only yourself if you are among the published delinquents.

31-2t W. F. CROOKS, Sheriff.

Death of J. L. Mark.

On Friday morning at his home on Antwerp Avenue, in this city, Mr. J. L. Mark, aged 63 years, quietly passed to the great beyond.

Mr. Mark was a Christian gentleman and was widely known in this county where he had spent his entire life. He was a member of the Christian Church and was a firm believer in its doctrine. About eight years ago he moved to this city from Sideview. Bright's disease was the cause of his death, and it was a sweet relief when the death angel visited his home, as he had long been an intense sufferer.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. William Boardman, of Bourbon county, and Mrs. George Roberts, of Montgomery county, and his wife and two children, Will Mark, of this city, and Mrs. Thomas Patrick, of North Middletown.

The funeral services and burial took place Sunday in North Middletown, Rev. Leggon conducting the services.

Conner.

Mr. Richard Conner died at his home on the Prewitt and Grassy Lick pike last Tuesday afternoon, after a lingering illness of Bright's disease. Mr. Conner was about 60 years old. He had long been a resident of this county and had just moved to his new home, having sold his farm near Spencer. He was an upright, honest and industrious man and left a host of friends to mourn his loss. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. H. L. Calhoun. He is survived by a wife and nine children.

Splendid Show.

"The Genius," as seen at the Tabb Opera House Monday night, with Henry Woodruff in the title role, was as good a show as was ever in Mt. Sterling, if not the best. The people of this city have learned that when Mort Singer presents a show it is the real goods. Manager Wilkerson deserves credit for securing such an excellent attraction.

Montgomery-Williams.

Mr. J. G. Williams, formerly of this county, but now of Jacksonville, Fla., was recently married to a Miss Montgomery, of Texas. Mr. Williams has many friends in this, his old home, who will hear of his new happiness with pleasure.

Mr. Williams is the father of Miss Laura Williams, of this county.
